
Contractor's Exempt Purchase Certificate for a Renovation Contract With a Direct Payment Permit Holder

(This certificate may not be used for new construction.)

I declare I am engaged in performance of a renovation construction contract for the following Direct Payment Permit holder:

Connecticut Tax Registration Number of Direct Payment Permit Holder: _____

Name of Direct Payment Permit Holder: _____

Address: _____

Project Name and Address: _____

The contractor or subcontractor must attach a copy of the direct payment permit to this certificate.

Construction Contracts Entered Into With Direct Payment Permit Holders: The contractor must purchase materials and supplies that are to be installed or placed in a project performed under this renovation contract and that will remain in the project after its completion without payment of sales and use tax. The contractor will not charge the Direct Payment Permit holder any sales or use tax on the materials and supplies. This includes tangible personal property that remains tangible personal property after its installation or placement. For such exempt purchases, the contractor must furnish the contractor's suppliers a completed certificate for each project. Note: The General Contractor's Information and Declaration Section must be completed in full. Notice to Nonresident Contractors: This certificate does not supersede any bonding requirements previously established by the Department of Revenue Services (DRS).
